AGREEMENT TO COMPETE WITH RIIL SCHOOLS

SPORT: _____

RIIL SCHOOL(S) COMPETING AGAINST: _____

RIIL member schools will be allowed to compete in contests against non-member schools if the chief administrator of the non-member school agrees, in writing, prior to the start of that season.

- 1) The non-member school team shall not include a player who has reached the age of 19 before September 1 of the year.
- 2) The non-member school team shall not include a player who is a student below the ninth grade or a student in the fifth year of high school.
- 3) The length of periods played will not exceed the maximum lengths prescribed by the National Federation/RIIL game rules.
- 4) The competition shall be conducted consistent with all RIIL rules. This rule is not to be construed as requiring any non-RIIL home team to pay game officials the fee that the RIIL has established. The host school, in this case, will pay according to its agreement with their officials organization.
- 5) National Federation rules will be played in contests held in Rhode Island.
Exceptions: Hockey, Baseball

OUR SCHOOL AGREES TO THE ABOVE CONDITIONS.
